Busses are free, schools aren't in session, jobs aren't 'essential' so many folks have a lot more time on their hands. There are large gatherings of non-homeless teens and young adults in beltrami and NE park in the evenings lately - grafitti is (HUGE!) all over the place overnight - how are we addressing those things? Those gatherings will continue to grow in size and restlessness... but we can't take a photo with our phones while we are driving :-). It isn't so much the gathering that I'm worried about...it's the activity that stems from it. I'm sure you know what I mean.

From Nic Toth to Everyone: (06:59 PM)

I wish I could speak I think we all know. all of it

From Nic Toth to Everyone: (07:02 PM)

Yes, birds of a feather. I have my answer. Our hands are tied. Things will unfortunately escalate. They were on the edge last summer. Hanging out in the manner that they are already is an act of rebellion to begin with - feeding the fire to start. I understand and not blaming anyone. We will continue to work as a neighborhood too

From nelsoc10 to Everyone: (07:03 PM)

Hello. Thank you for your concern and input. Once this meeting is over, I will email the Park PD about these concerns and issues so that they are more aware, especially with NE Park and Beltrami Park. They do have Park officers and Agents (non-sworn personnel) who patrol the parks.

From Nicolle Toth to Everyone: (07:43 PM)

yes I thought that it had been decided to keep the original date for NNO We had a first print meeting yesterday that mentioned the original date

From Nicolle Toth to Everyone: (07:45 PM)

AND do you want me to contact my family member that heads the safety com for BNSF on the mural question? maybe scavenger hunts with window finds and a virtual DJ - things like that... Chow Girls expressed sponsorship interest

From Nicolle Toth to Everyone: (07:49 PM)

This would not need to be in their space - they've become really flex we'll make sure that would not be an issue if we were to go that route ok yes
